Cyber Security Best Practices

- Be cautious of unsolicited calls from strangers! Remember, law enforcement agencies do not make such calls without prior notice from official trusted sources.
- If you receive a call alleging criminal involvement, take steps to independently verify the information with the local police station mentioned. Do not trust Truecaller & search engine results to verify the contact number, photo and quoted names in the conversation.
- Never reveal Personal / Sensitive / Financial information to unknown callers.
- Do not make money transfer at the behest of any unknown caller or on the basis of urgency / trust / fear / intimidation / pressure tactics.
- Scammers use Dark Pattern / Reverse Psychological techniques in a way that one start believing in whatever they are saying by relating it to past incidents / personal life experiences.

Always Think! Take a Pause, and then Act wisely.
